A TIMELINE OF QUEER IMMIGRATION
discrimination against homosexuals.

1981– Norwegian law against homosexual discrimination allowed as many as 125,000 "undesirable" Cubans to leave to the U.S.

On April 20, 1980 Fidel Castro launched the Mariel boatlift in which he

1980– Castro launches the Mariel boatlift

1979– Bullying by U.S. Border Patrol Agents

Sweden becomes the first country in the world to allow gender reassignment.

1950– Mattachine Society and RSFL

The homophile group Forbundet af 1948 (League of 1948) was formed in Denmark.

1917– Immigration Act of 1917

The first comprehensive federal immigration law called for the return of immigrants considered to be polygamists, to have contagious diseases, to be psychopaths, inferiors, and "people with abnormal sexual instincts"

1891– The Immigration Act Amended

The first comprehensive federal immigration law called for the return of fifty cents on each immigrant.

1933-1945– Nazi Holocaust

The European Unions’s leading human rights agency sharply criticized the Czech authorities for using the "Phallometric Test," a pseudoscientific test for determining whether a person is homosexual.

2011– DOMA

Passed by Congress as the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) in 1996 to define marriage as only a union between one man and one woman, which was signed into law by President Bill Clinton. The "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy is instituted for the U.S. military, which prohibits gays and lesbians from serving in any capacity.

2003– Belgium recognized same-sex marriages

The new federal system was funded by a tax on liquor sales.

1906– Same-sex marriage in South Africa

The Church of Sweden, the former state church, decided to hold blessing ceremonies for same-sex couples, who can already enter into registrar partnerships equal to marriage.

2006– Out4Immigration is founded

On June 22, Out4Immigration formed in San Francisco as an all-queer group, who organized in collaboration with QUEEROCRACY and many of its members.

1992– Immigration and Nationality Act

The new federal system was funded by a tax on liquor sales.

1965– Exclusion by Immigration Reform Act

The first federal immigration act to explicitly excluded homosexuals ("aliens afflicted with sexual deviation") from admission into the United States.

1948– Forbundet af 1948 (League of 1948)

The.homophile group Forbundet af 1948 (League of 1948) was formed in Denmark.

1950– Mattachine Society and RSFL

The homophile group Forbundet af 1948 (League of 1948) was formed in Denmark.

1917– Immigration Act of 1917

The first comprehensive federal immigration law called for the return of immigrants considered to be polygamists, to have contagious diseases, to be psychopaths, inferiors, and "people with abnormal sexual instincts"

1891– The Immigration Act Amended

The first comprehensive federal immigration law called for the return of fifty cents on each immigrant.

1933-1945– Nazi Holocaust

The European Unions’s leading human rights agency sharply criticized the Czech authorities for using the "Phallometric Test," a pseudoscientific test for determining whether a person is homosexual.

2011– DOMA

Passed by Congress as the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) in 1996 to define marriage as only a union between one man and one woman, which was signed into law by President Bill Clinton. The "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy is instituted for the U.S. military, which prohibits gays and lesbians from serving in any capacity.

2003– Belgium recognized same-sex marriages

The new federal system was funded by a tax on liquor sales.

1965– Exclusion by Immigration Reform Act

The first federal immigration act to explicitly excluded homosexuals ("aliens afflicted with sexual deviation") from admission into the United States.

1948– Forbundet af 1948 (League of 1948)

The.homophile group Forbundet af 1948 (League of 1948) was formed in Denmark.

1950– Mattachine Society and RSFL

The first comprehensive federal immigration law called for the return of immigrants considered to be polygamists, to have contagious diseases, to be psychopaths, inferiors, and "people with abnormal sexual instincts"

1891– The Immigration Act Amended

The first comprehensive federal immigration law called for the return of fifty cents on each immigrant.

1933-1945– Nazi Holocaust

The European Unions’s leading human rights agency sharply criticized the Czech authorities for using the "Phallometric Test," a pseudoscientific test for determining whether a person is homosexual.

2011– DOMA

Passed by Congress as the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) in 1996 to define marriage as only a union between one man and one woman, which was signed into law by President Bill Clinton. The "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy is instituted for the U.S. military, which prohibits gays and lesbians from serving in any capacity.

2003– Belgium recognized same-sex marriages

The new federal system was funded by a tax on liquor sales.

1965– Exclusion by Immigration Reform Act

The first federal immigration act to explicitly excluded homosexuals ("aliens afflicted with sexual deviation") from admission into the United States.

1948– Forbundet af 1948 (League of 1948)

The.homophile group Forbundet af 1948 (League of 1948) was formed in Denmark.

1950– Mattachine Society and RSFL

The first comprehensive federal immigration law called for the return of immigrants considered to be polygamists, to have contagious diseases, to be psychopaths, inferiors, and "people with abnormal sexual instincts"

1891– The Immigration Act Amended

The first comprehensive federal immigration law called for the return of fifty cents on each immigrant.

1933-1945– Nazi Holocaust

The European Unions’s leading human rights agency sharply criticized the Czech authorities for using the "Phallometric Test," a pseudoscientific test for determining whether a person is homosexual.

2011– DOMA

Passed by Congress as the Defense of Marriage Act (DOMA) in 1996 to define marriage as only a union between one man and one woman, which was signed into law by President Bill Clinton. The "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" policy is instituted for the U.S. military, which prohibits gays and lesbians from serving in any capacity.

2003– Belgium recognized same-sex marriages

The new federal system was funded by a tax on liquor sales.

1965– Exclusion by Immigration Reform Act

The first federal immigration act to explicitly excluded homosexuals ("aliens afflicted with sexual deviation") from admission into the United States.